The Kinai made a good trip from Lahaina this morning, leaving there at a quarter-past two o'clock, arriving here at half-past eight o'clock.

New arrivals are announced in the households of Chief Justice Judd, Hon. J. S. Walker and Mr. H. M. Dow, all doing well. Congratulations.

On Wednesday next at 12 noon, Lyons & Levey will sell at the Blue House, Nuuanu street, without reserve, four billiard tables, with balls, cues and racks complete.

On Monday afternoon next at 4:30 o'clock, there will be artillery practice at a point just beyond the leper hospital at Kakaako. The targets have already been fixed out at sea.

The post office despatched by the Alameda, 5,125 letters and 1,678 papers. All the foreign correspondence received to-day by the steamers Like like, W. G. Hall and Kinai was forwarded.

The schooner Ida Schnauer arrived at Kahului Thursday from San Francisco, with a cargo of general merchandise, and a load of hogs. She brought one passenger, W. Hollingshead.

ANOTHER large fire took place at the Star Mill Co.'s plantation, Kohala, Hawaii, last Thursday evening at 10 o'clock. Two trash houses and a wagon shed were burned to the ground.

Mr. Adams had a good attendance at his salesroom this noon when the Schreiber property was put up for sale. The upset price of the property on King street was $3,500 and of the Schreiber homestead, Nuuanu Valley, $1,500. There was no advance, so it was withdrawn.

A GENTLEMAN sent a horse to be sold at auction yesterday, but it getting abroad that the animal was sick, the owner bought it in. Officer Mehrtens noticed it looked far from well and at once notified the Board of Inspectors, who found it had got glanders in the worst form. It was soon shot.

In the store adjoining Nolte's Beaver Saloon two or three Japanese have got a large stock of Japanese goods. Yesterday afternoon one of them hung up his coat on one side of the store, in which was a purse containing $12.75. Some sneak thief stole the purse and money during the afternoon. There were several Chinese and native boys in the store during the afternoon, and it is supposed to be one of them.

MANUEL Nicols, a sailor on board the Alameda, was found guilty of importing forty tins of opium into the Kingdom. This is the man who passed the opium into a boat belonging to a friend of his who is now serving his sentence over the reef. The latter testified against Nicols and clearly proved the case. Nicols, who is a Greek, said he knew nothing about such business and would swear so by the Bible. However, His Honor Justice Bickerton thought otherwise, and sentenced him to pay a fine of $200 and be imprisoned at hard labor for nine months.

YESTERDAY afternoon, a large number of people were present at the New Central Park, corner of Beretania and Punchbowl Streets, to witness an exhibition of the roller coaster. It is quite a novelty in this city, and consists of an inclosed track running in a circular form, and standing at an angle of about 45 degrees, ending at an up-grade to stop the cars. The whole thing is very strongly built and neatly painted. The carriage is something like a garden seat on wheels, and about eight persons can ride comfortably on one at a time. Quite a number of prominent citizens and members of the press tried this novelty and were much pleased with it. The quickest trip round yesterday was made in 17 seconds. Workmen are at present preparing the ground below for a skating rink.

Honolulu, Jan. 11, 1885.
C. O. BERGHEI, Esq., Agent Macneale & Urban Safes.
Dear Sir,
It is with great pleasure that I add my testimony to the Fire-Proof qualities of your Safes.
I had a small single door Macneale & Urban Safe in last night's terrible fire, and, on opening the same this morning, found its contents—consisting of book, papers, and money to the amount of $1040—IN PERFECT CONDITION.
I am so well satisfied with the result that I want another No. 3 Safe at once.
Yours truly,
